Dog Tails Talk

PINK STEP SET C-2: Tails of Dogs & Cats | Book 3

written by Elfrieda H. Hiebert & Alia Pugh

A happy dog plays with its tail up.

A dog that is afraid might tuck its tail between its legs.

Dogs can tell us many things.
They have tails that talk.

A dog might put its tail between its legs when it is afraid.

Dogs cannot talk.

So, dogs use their tails to tell us things.

A dog that wants to play will hold up its tail.

It will also wag its tail.

A dog will raise its tail when unhappy.

But an unhappy dog might wag its tail too.

Or the dog will hold up its tail.

This shows the dog is ready to stand up for itself.
