Cat Tails Talk

PINK STEP SET C-2: Tails of Dogs & Cats | Book 4

written by Elfrieda H. Hiebert & Alia Pugh

A cat can curl its tail at the top.

A cat may curl its tail around another cat.

This shows that the two cats are friends.

You can tell many things from the tail of a cat.

Some cats have fluffy tails.

A cat can tell you how it feels.
A tail sticking up means a cat is happy.
The cat may be ready to play.

A cat keeps its tail low when it's unhappy.

A cat may be unhappy if its tail is low.
A scared cat might even hide its tail.
Or it might puff its tail up to look big and scary.
