"What's in the big box that Dad took to the barn, Mom? Is it something Aunt Nancy bought for Megan's birthday?"
* (The box in the barn)

box

- a container that is usually rectangular to put things in (n)
- a shape on paper or a computer screen to write, type, or put pictures into (n)
- Click the square tool. Make a box for your leaf. This is where you will show the leaves you collect. Print enough pages to begin your book... There are two ways to put leaves in the box. Draw a picture of the leaf. Paste a real leaf in the center of the box. (It's fun)

box

- to play a sport where you wear special gloves and punch someone (v)

The boys were there! There were three of them. They were boxing with each other for fun.

She listened to music and drew pictures on blank sheets of paper. (Once upon a baby brother)

Jeff said, Art comes next. That's fun. Amelia Bedelia looked at her list. You're right, she said. You must paint pictures now. The children got sheets of art paper. (Teach us, Amelia Bedelia)

Ms. Rogers stepped into the house. She stared into the living room at the wrinkled blanket and sheets on the couch and the empty Domino's box and soda bottles. (Help, I'm trapped)

“Rise and shine,” Dad called. Noah groaned and pulled the sheet over his head, even though the room was still dark. (Noah)
