Shapes, numbers, sizes, & colors (K-1)
Multiple-meaning-word map

Patrick walked slowly out of the store... A few blocks farther on was another store—a bigger store. (Patrick and the great molasses explosion)

block

- an area of land between two streets (n)
- a wooden toy or a piece of other material like ice, stone, or clay shaped like a cube or rectangle (n)
- I am making a castle with blocks. My mom comes to play with me. (When you were little)

- to get in the way or put something in the way (v)

A tree blocks the path of light. The light cannot turn to go around the tree. (How can sounds be different?)

- Using their horses, they would drag the ice onto the river or lake banks, and begin to cut the sheet into blocks. (Ice harvest)
Shapes, numbers, sizes, & colors (K-1)
Multiple-meaning-word map

"Well, good luck to you then," he said. I thanked the man, and we parted ways. (The youngest rider)

They parted near the village fence, Dog going one way and Leopard the other. (How Dog outwitted Leopard)

She may teach biology or work with deaf children. But one thing she knows for sure. Swimming will always be part of her life. (Water woman)

One part of your tongue is best at tasting sweet things. Another part is best at tasting salty things. (You can't smell a flower with your ear)

a piece of something or some of it - not the whole thing (n)

© 2020 TextProject, INC. Some rights reserved.
This work is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 4.0 Unported License.
"men" (altered) is licensed under CC BY 1.0. "Apples Apple picking fall apple pie crust 3" by Le living and co, is licensed under CC BY 2.0. "A Midsummer Night's Dream" - rehearsal, York Theatre Royal" by alh1 is licensed under CC BY-ND 2.0.