

A Steep Hill

Grace and Reese like to glide down hills on their sleds.

One day, they went to a new hill.

It was the steepest hill they had ever been on.

They had a race down the steep hill.

They got down the hill at the same time.

Then they dragged their sleds up the steep hill.

It took a long time.

They began their next race.

But then Grace heard a scream.

Reese had fallen off her sled.

Grace tried to stop her sled.

But her sled was going at a fast speed.

When Grace got down the hill, she looked up.

Reese gave her a big wave!

She was okay.
