

A Team That Works

Max, Emma, and Lev are friends.

Max likes to run and jump.

Emma likes to think of big ideas.

Lev likes to care for pets.

Together, they are a team that likes to help others.

One day, Max gets a note from Bill.

“Come right away,” says Bill.

“I need help!”

Max runs to Bill’s house.

He finds Bill’s cat stuck under a fence.

“We can help,” says Max.

“I’ll send for Emma.”

Emma comes to Bill’s house.

She thinks about what to do.

“I have an idea,” she says.

Emma calls Lev.

Lev meets up with Emma, Max, and Bill.

Emma hands him a can of cat food.

Lev bends down to Bill’s cat.

He talks to the cat.

At the same time, Max jumps the fence.

He gives the cat a soft push from behind.

Soon, the cat comes out.

It walks to Lev and the food.

“Thank you,” Bill says.

“Your skills were a big help!”

“Yes,” says Max.

“We’re a team,” says Emma.

“We’re a team that likes to help!” says Lev.
