

Stan the Seal

Stan is a seal who lives near a beach.
Stan likes to race through the water.
He leaps in and out of the waves.

Stan likes to lie on the beach too.
He likes to warm his coat in the sun.

One day, Stan has an idea.
“I will race in the sand,” thinks Stan.
Stan tries to run on the beach.
Flop! Stan falls into the sand.

“Maybe I can leap?” thinks Stan.
But Stan cannot leap on the beach.
All he can do is drag himself across the sand.

So Stan goes back into the water.
Splash!
