

The Peach Queen

Everyone knew how much Jean loved peaches.
She ate peaches with ice cream.
She made peach pies.
She even made cakes with peaches.

Jean's friends called her the Peach Queen.
So, they gave her a big box of peaches as a gift.
But there was one thing her friends did not know.

Jean baked her pies and cakes with peaches from a can.
That's because Jean hated the fuzzy skin of fresh peaches.

Jean opened the box of fresh peaches from her friends.
When Jean saw the fuzzy skins on the peaches, she screamed.
She ran into another room.
And Jean never ate another peach.
